3.. City Updates- City Council appointed Andy Scott to the BAR on 9/13, replacing Laurie Ossman who moved out of the area. At Oct. 11 Council Legislative meeting they appointed a new member to replace John Sprinkle, who resigned in August. There was a consulting party meeting for the Samuel Madden project on September 19 and another BAR Concept Review on September 20. Those who do/will live in the community fully support the development. The applicant met with staff on October 6 to discuss BAR recommendations for design changes to the proposed north end of the building, where N. Patrick and N. Henry join.

Proposed Old Presbyterian Meeting House interior renovations include removing the pulpit, which dates to circa 1941. Some citizens have suggested an interior easement after the removal to protect the rest of the interior.
