I. Call to Order

The meeting was called to order at 7:05pm by Angelique Moss (Chair)

II. Public Virtual Meeting Notice

The meeting notice for public virtual events was read by Jim Holloway.

III. Introduction

Wesley Thomas, Holly Beardow, and Kate Karau voted to approve the minutes from last month's meeting, approved by Angelique Moss (chair).

IV. Ongoing Business

A. Virtual "Member Meet-Ups": Kerem and Kate will be in charge of organizing bios of committee members both in Alexandria and Caen, so members may do exchanges over Zoom together, in English or French. Kate typed a possible template to be used, and several committee members offered suggestions on how to improve the template. It was suggested that we add our picture, language level, relationship status / family life, and a few other details about ourselves. When the bios have been compiled, Kerem and Kate can move forward with matching members together based on possible compatibility.

B. Cooking Demonstration

Elodie confirmed that she can have a business associate, who is a French chef, do a demonstration for us. He will do the demonstration on a date before Valentine's Day - currently, there are several events that have already been booked, according to Jim. We suggested that he make a cocktail / dessert / truffles, and possible crêpes. Members agreed that it should be a simple demonstration, and that he should receive an honorarium for his services (about $100) since he has to pay for the ingredients. The possibility of recording the demonstration for later viewing was discussed. The 4th or 9th, around 8 PM, would be an ideal time.

C. D-Day

Kerem discussed how we could go about planning for D-Day, provided that it can happen by that time. He confirmed that the date for the virtual lecture had been decided: June 3rd with Dr. Hollien. We may combine a virtual lecture with an in-person event, if restrictions have been lifted. We also discussed the Redding Air Show. The city will determine if we can have an in-person event or not.

VII. Public Comment

We have lost one member, and Chris’s term will soon be over. Therefore, we have 2 spots open for any qualified member who is interested in joining.

VIII. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 8:05 pm.
