There is no way to rehearse being the first
To be the person responsible for paving the way
Leaving a trail
Knowing that you cannot fail
Or
it will possibly close the door for another person to enter
To be the inventor
The preventer
of failed attempts
To get this thing right
To fight
Without swinging
While clinging
To the calling that you know is for you
With all you've been through
And still stand strong
The person to fix what is wrong
Is a challenge
One with faith
Is willing to take
To not just complain
But contribute
To the solution
To make a change
While making a name
For yourself...
When someone else calls your name aloud
It makes the ancestors and the children proud
It is difficult to be the first
But if not you

Then who?
Who will lead us to Another possibility of a successfully community
Of solution based people
And community leaders
And believers
That being the first
Is the only way to start
A trend
Of trendsetters
Of go getters
Who won't stop until you've received and believed the words
That you should have
What you deserve
