City of Alexandria Schedules First Ad Hoc Fort Ward Park and Museum Area Stakeholder Advisory Group Meeting for Tuesday, December 8

The City of Alexandria's Ad Hoc Fort Ward Park and Museum Area Stakeholder Advisory Group will hold its first meeting at the Fort Ward Museum, 4301 W. Braddock Rd. at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, December 8. The Advisory Group, established by City Council resolution in June 2009, will advise City staff on Fort Ward Park and Museum use and management.

The ten members of the group were appointed by the City Manager in October 2009 based on their commitment to a balanced, multi-use park and historic site in the City, and are representative of the diversity of interests and uses of the park and museum site. The Advisory Group's area of responsibility includes the total area of Fort Ward Park, including the area of the Fort and Park Maintenance facilities. Excluded would be the actual Museum building. The Advisory Group will be formed for limited duration of about a one-year period. The Advisory Group's work will complement the work of the Fort Ward Park History Work Group which will be exploring and focusing on the historic issues such as the existence and location of potential additional graves at the Fort Ward Park site.
